WHY IT WORKS

Personal at 25. Personal at 250.

The canvas is consistent. The painting is theirs to choose. That small act turns a bulk order into an individual gift.

FOR CLIENTS

Memorable without being promotional.

FOR EMPLOYEES

Equal value with genuine choice.

FOR YOUR TEAM

One program, one quote, one point of contact.

A gift chosen at scale can still feel chosen.

CELIA MEADORS

She learned to build a face from memory.

For nearly four decades, Celia worked as a composite artist for the Amarillo Police Department. She listened as witnesses recalled a brow, a jaw, the set of a mouth - then translated those fragments into a face investigators could recognize.

In 1990, a four-by-six-foot Santa she painted for a Christmas gala became her highest-selling work to date. More than 100 portraits followed, each shaped by that same ability to turn small human details into character people recognize and remember.
